United Nations Organis

Seminar for the Far East Juvenile delinquency and other problems - Papers recorded.

The Government of India have invited the United Nations Organisation to conduct a Social Welfare Seminar for the Far East in India in November this year. The Seminar will last for 3 weeks and its programmes are generally confined to the Child and Maternity Welfare, ante-natal and postnatal care, juvenile delinquency, infant mortality etc. The Government of India have enquired:-

(1) Whether this Government would like to have the Seminar conducted in this province; and

(2) whether they wish to send any representatives to the Seminar.

(1) above: Owing to serious accommodiation difficulties, it is not possible to hold the Seminar in this province. It is proposed to inform the Government of India accordingly.

(2) above: It is proposed to send the following representatives to the Seminar:-

(1) Dr. (Mrs.) Rajamanickam, A.D.P.H.(M.&.C.W.)

(2) Dr. (Mrs.) A.B.Hardy, Superintendent, Kasturiba Gandhi Hospital, Madras.

(3) The Chief Inspector of Certified Schools.

(4) The Chief Probation Superintendent.

All these to go at this Government's cost.

2.The All India Conference of Social Work will be held in Madras in December 1948. It is proposed to invite the delegates and observers of the Seminar to attend this Conference.
